Dear Members of the City Council,

I am writing on behalf of the Beatrice Public Library to respectfully request permission to serve alcohol at an upcoming program we are planning for our community.

The event, titled History of the Little Black Dress, is a “black dress” themed evening designed to provide an engaging and elevated cultural experience for attendees. The program will feature Sue McLain, from Yesterdays’ Lady, along with light refreshments.

We would like to offer wine service during the event to enhance the atmosphere and align with the formal nature of the evening. Alcohol service would be limited, responsibly managed, and in full compliance with all local regulations. We will ensure that:

All alcohol is served by trained and responsible staff or licensed vendors

Proper ID verification procedures are followed

Consumption is monitored to promote a safe and respectful environment

The event remains focused on its cultural and community-centered purpose

Our goal is to provide a unique and memorable experience while maintaining the highest standards of safety and professionalism.

We appreciate your consideration of this request and are happy to provide any additional information you may need. Thank you for your continued support of community programming.

Sincerely,

Joanne Neemann
Beatrice Public Library Director
